

OPEN SPACES

The Park at Mosier Creek

AKS Engineering & Forestry has been involved in designing open space and recreation areas over the past 10 years, for both private and public clients. These projects included: preservation of existing wetland and native buffer areas; native plant and forestry restoration; design of active and passive parks in Planned Unit Developments; overlooks and trails; swimming pools; play structures and recreation centers.

Wildflower Restoration

Water Quality